GUAR MARKET SNAPSHOT : Week of Sept 15th, 2025

As reported by the Oil industry The long-anticipated US Federal Reserve interest rate cut has failed to deliver a new bullish boost to oil prices, as the news was quickly offset by larger-than-usual US inventory builds and recurring concerns about OPEC+ policy leading inevitably to oversupply next year. Oil prices are set for a minor week-over-week decline, Brent Crude closed at around US$67/- , almost the same level as it opened at the beginning of the week and likewise WTI closed at around US$63/- for the corresponding period

As can be seen from the graph, another stable week as far as Guar prices are concerned. The talks between the US Govt and the Indian Govt has resumed. Still the picture is not clear about the level of tariff and whether Guar gum has been included in the list or not. Till such time there are no indications to the speculators/traders of where the market will go.

The demand from the food and oil drilling sectors is spread out with no spike in the demand pattern but there has definitely been a gradual overall increase.

Container availability is still difficult. Sailings have become more and more erratic. In the monsoons we may see many blank / revised sailing schedules. In view of the delays in shipments we suggest to plan your purchases and shipment well in advance and with enough safety margin.

Nothing can be forecasted about the Guar market for sure. The market is controlled by speculators/traders.

We will keep you updated regarding the market situation as it develops. Please advise us your requirements so that we can calculate and advise you our best rates based on your indication regarding the Quantity, Quality and shipment period.
